Three cities, two villages

I'm Devin Desaulniers, a Real Estate Associate with Axford Real Estate on Clarke Street in Port Moody. "Tri-Cities" means Coquitlam, Port Coquitlam and Port Moody. Anmore and Belcarra are the villages just north.

I've lived in Greater Vancouver for 28 years and play soccer on a Port Coquitlam team. The five communities show up in the same search; they are not the same errand pattern. The number that matters is your station plus the rent or price on a specific home.

Two rent statistics get mixed up. Asking rents are vacant listings (Rentals.ca, September 2026, published 7 October 2026). CMHC averages include homes people already occupy (October 2025 survey). If you are arriving now, budget the asking rent.

The wider region is in the companion Greater Vancouver guide.

Three cities, two villages

Each city has its own hall and benchmark row. Anmore and Belcarra have no SkyTrain and no GVR benchmark.

A benchmark is a typical home

Not a price tag on any listing. And do not average the house and the condo.

COQUITLAM

The largest of the three

From the Fraser up to Burke Mountain and Westwood Plateau. City Centre — Coquitlam Centre, Lafarge Lake, Town Centre Park — is what the SkyTrain was aimed at, and four of the six Evergreen stations are in Coquitlam. The hill is more house and more of a drive. The commute usually decides it.

Names on listings: Burke Mountain, Westwood Plateau, City Centre, Burquitlam, Austin Heights, Maillardville, Ranch Park, Eagle Ridge.

PORT COQUITLAM

PoCo

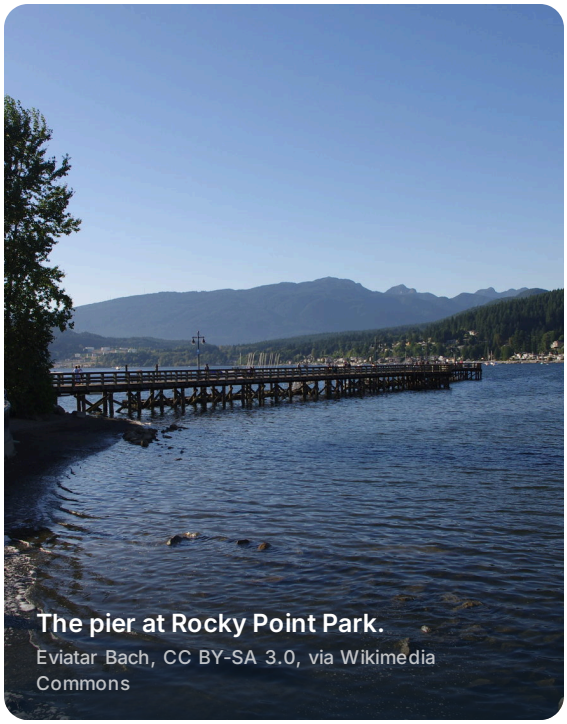

Between the Coquitlam and Pitt rivers. A walkable downtown, the Traboulay PoCo Trail, Terry Fox's hometown, and where I play soccer. No SkyTrain: the West Coast Express stops at the Kingsway station on weekday rush hours, and the R3 RapidBus runs along Lougheed Highway. The lowest composite of the three.

Names on listings: Downtown PoCo, Citadel Heights, Mary Hill, Oxford Heights, Lincoln Park, Riverwood, Birchland Manor, Glenwood.

WHERE TO LIVE

PORT MOODY

Head of the inlet

The city calls itself the City of the Arts. Rocky Point, the Shoreline Trail and Brewers Row on Murray Street are local favourites; my office is on Clarke Street. Moody Centre and Inlet Centre have SkyTrain, and Moody Centre has the West Coast Express. The hill neighbourhoods are a drive down to it.

Names on listings: Moody Centre, Inlet Centre and Suter Brook, Newport Village, Heritage Mountain, Heritage Woods, College Park, Glenayre, Ioco.

ANMORE & BELCARRA

The villages

Larger, treed lots, and a car for most trips. Buntzen Lake is in Anmore. təmtəmíxʷtən/Belcarra Regional Park and Sasamat Lake are why the rest of the region drives up. The nearest SkyTrain and West Coast Express are in Port Moody. Map the grocery trip before you fall for a lot.

No separate GVR benchmark — I will not invent one. Lot size can affect the property transfer tax exemption, generally limited to 0.5 hectares for the full amount.

- 182 bus, Moody Centre to Belcarra via Anmore Grocery
- 0 SkyTrain stations
- 0.5 ha PTT lot limit
- No GVR benchmark row

COQUITLAM · APTS & CONDOS

$2,497

The one Tri-Cities figure in the September report. No bedroom split; no Port Moody or Port Coquitlam line.

BURNABY · APTS & CONDOS

$2,548

Next door on the Millennium Line. Year-over-year change not published in the text used.

VANCOUVER · APTS & CONDOS

$2,741

+1.4% from August, −1.3% year over year. Lowest September since 2021.

RICHMOND · APTS & CONDOS

$2,572

−8.4% year over year.

APARTMENTS AND CONDOS BY CITY, SEPTEMBER 2026

NOT PUBLISHED

Port Moody, Port Coquitlam, Anmore and Belcarra did not get their own line in the September report. Budget there from live listings in the week you search.

B.C. · APTS & CONDOS

$2,373

−2.3% year over year; −10.7% over three years.

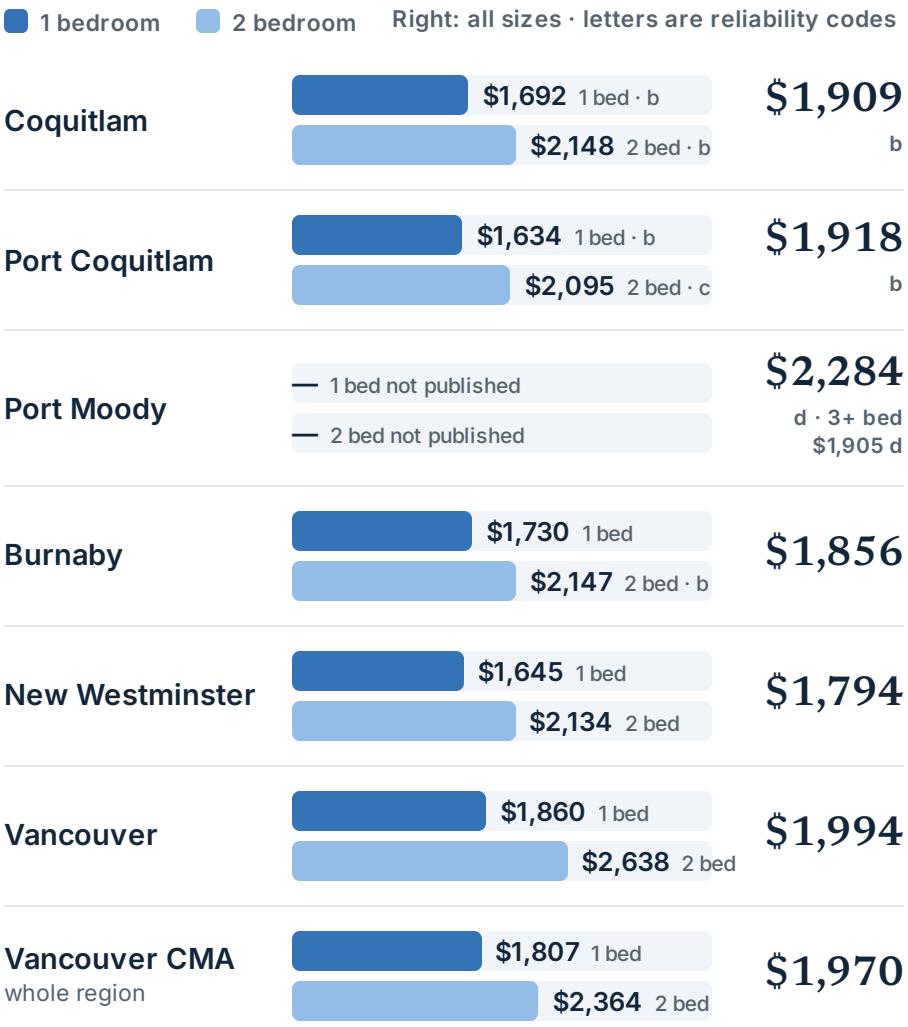

CANADA · ALL TYPES

$2,034

−4.2% year over year, the 24th month of annual decline.

These are vacant listings — the number to budget from if you are arriving now. Apartments and condominiums unless noted. A new tower at Inlet Centre and an older walk-up in Maillardville are not the same product; the average sits between them.

Average rents, sitting tenants included

$1,909
CMHC average, Coquitlam, all sizes, October 2025

$2,497
Asking average, Coquitlam apartments and condos, September 2026

+31%
The gap. It is the reason newcomers under-budget.

Why this is lower

Purpose-built rentals of three or more units, occupied and vacant. A tenant who signed in 2019 is in this average. A listing this month is not. Basement suites and rented condos are outside it.

Reliability codes

a excellent · b very good · c good · d poor. Unmarked figures are a. A dash means CMHC suppressed the cell. Port Moody's row is code d: too weak to budget a move from.

Studios and 3+ bedrooms

Coquitlam studio $1,637 [b], 3+ bed $2,737 [b]. Port Coquitlam: both suppressed. Port Moody 3+ bed $1,905 [d]. Vancouver CMA studio $1,667, 3+ bed $2,820.

A DIAGRAM I DREW · NOT A TRANSLINK MAP

Evergreen is the Millennium Line

Straight lines, TransLink's station order, not to scale. After Lougheed Town Centre the Millennium Line keeps going as the Evergreen Extension: six stations in Coquitlam and Port Moody, same train, no transfer. Port Coquitlam has the West Coast Express, not SkyTrain.

STATION 1 · COQUITLAM

Burquitlam

Clarke Road, Coquitlam. The first Evergreen stop after Lougheed Town Centre.

STATION 2 · PORT MOODY

Moody Centre

Port Moody, and a West Coast Express station too. Clarke Street — and my office — is this end of town.

WEST COAST EXPRESS

STATION 3 · PORT MOODY

Inlet Centre

Ioco Road and Barnet Highway. Suter Brook Village is near this station. Not the same walk as Moody Centre.

STATION 4 · COQUITLAM

Coquitlam Central

Also a West Coast Express station, and where the R3 Lougheed Hwy RapidBus starts toward Port Coquitlam and Haney Place.

WEST COAST EXPRESS

STATION 5 · COQUITLAM

Lincoln

Coquitlam Centre, the mall: about 930,000 square feet and nearly 200 stores.

THE MALL

STATION 6 · COQUITLAM

Lafarge Lake–Douglas

Pinetree and Guildford, beside Town Centre Park. Published in-vehicle time to Commercial–Broadway: 35 minutes.

END OF THE LINE

Lincoln is the mall. Lafarge Lake is the park. One stop apart, and people mix them up. Inlet Centre and Moody Centre are both Port Moody and they are not the same walk: Suter Brook is at Inlet Centre, Clarke Street is at Moody Centre.

Zones, Compass, minutes

1 ZONE · ADULT	2 ZONES · ADULT	3 ZONES · ADULT
$2.85	$4.20	$5.40

Monthly pass $117.20	Monthly pass $156.70	Monthly pass $211.65

Big figures are Compass stored value, the cheaper adult fare. Every bus is 1-zone, all day. SkyTrain is 1, 2 or 3 zones on a weekday daytime, and 1-zone after 6:30 p.m., all weekend and on holidays. Children 12 and under ride free. A fare lasts 90 minutes, or 120 with the West Coast Express.

Compass, briefly

A $6 refundable deposit. Buy it at compasscard.ca, 604-398-2042, station machines, Waterfront's customer service centre, or some London Drugs. Load at least $5 at a time.

West Coast Express

Its own zones, up to five; Moody Centre, Coquitlam Central and Port Coquitlam are 3 of them from Waterfront. Weekdays only, five trains each way: westbound mornings, eastbound afternoons. Parking was $3 a day or $60 a month. A WCE return or monthly includes bus and SkyTrain that day.

Buses

R3 Lougheed Hwy RapidBus: Coquitlam Central to Haney Place via Port Coquitlam. 182: the Belcarra bus, via Anmore Grocery for Buntzen. 160: Port Coquitlam Station through Coquitlam Central and Moody Centre to Kootenay Loop. I am not quoting a frequency I could not confirm.

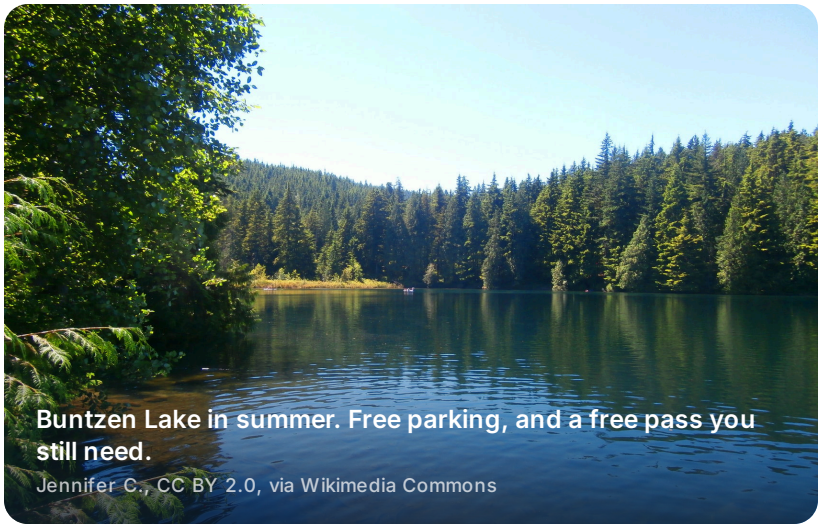

TO DOWNTOWN, IN PUBLISHED IN-VEHICLE MINUTES

Coquitlam Central Millennium Line	32 min	Commercial–Broadway change to Expo Line	10 min	≈ 42	MINUTES + THE WAIT
Lafarge Lake–Douglas end of the line	35 min	Commercial–Broadway change to Expo Line	10 min	≈ 45	MINUTES + THE WAIT

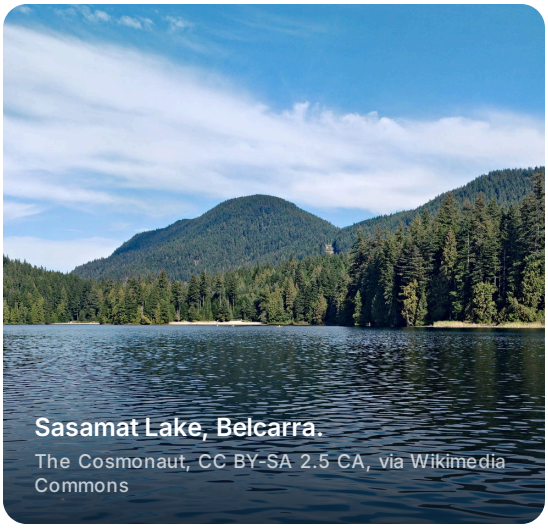

Millennium trains end at VCC–Clark, so Waterfront is a transfer, usually at Commercial–Broadway onto the Expo Line. Peak Expo frequency is published as 2–5 minutes, Millennium 3–4. Count zones on TransLink's map for your stations before buying a pass; I am not labelling every Tri-Cities-to-downtown ride "3-zone" without that check, and I am not printing driving minutes for Barnet, Lougheed or Highway 1.

ANMORE

Buntzen Lake

A BC Hydro recreation area. Parking is free. In recent summers, roughly mid-May through early September, you have still needed a free online pass released in the morning for the next day. No pass, no entry by car. Dates change — check bchydro.com/buntzen. No public parking in the village. The 182 bus does not need a pass: about a 30-minute walk from Anmore Grocery to South Beach.

BELCARRA

Belcarra Regional Park

Metro Vancouver's təmtəmíxʷtən/Belcarra Regional Park, at the mouth of the inlet: the beach, Sasamat Lake and White Pine Beach, Woodhaven Swamp, and the Admiralty Point Trail — about 6 km and 1.5 hours over rocky shoreline. On a hot weekend, locals go early. The 182 from Moody Centre is the bus.

May–Sept

Buntzen pass season in recent summers, roughly mid-May to early September. Free, next-day, released in the morning. Walkers, cyclists and the bus do not need one.

30 min

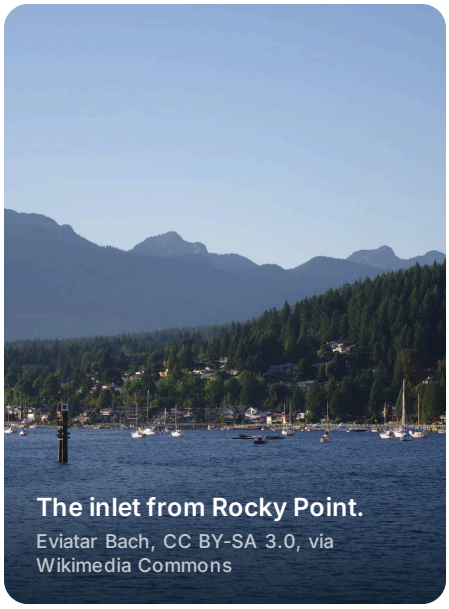

On foot from the Anmore Grocery bus stop to Buntzen's South Beach.

PORT MOODY

Rocky Point Park

2800 Murray Street: the pier, a playground, kayak rental, the Shoreline Trail along the inlet, and Rocky Point Ice Cream — still open when this was checked in October 2026. Brewers Row is across the street on Murray.

COQUITLAM

Mundy Park and Town Centre Park

Mundy, 641 Hillcrest: 178 hectares of urban forest and a 5.5 km loop, about an hour. Town Centre Park, 1299 Pinetree: 42 hectares on Lafarge Lake, at the last station, with the winter lights.

PORT COQUITLAM

Traboulay PoCo Trail

PoCo's long walk is the Traboulay PoCo Trail and the river dikes. It is flat, which is the point after a day on the hill. The downtown is the smaller main street.

COQUITLAM

Burke Mountain

City loops of about 2 km and 3.2 km from Harper Park, some steep sections. Beyond that is Pinecone Burke Provincial Park: BC Parks says much of the backcountry infrastructure is in poor condition and signage is incomplete.

DAY TO DAY

Shopping and schools

Coquitlam Centre

At Lincoln station: about 930,000 square feet and nearly 200 stores. The mall's own list includes Walmart, Best Buy, London Drugs, Sport Chek, T&T, UNIQLO, H&M, Sephora and lululemon, with about 4,000 parking stalls.

Village streets

Suter Brook Village (near Inlet Centre) and Newport Village (across from Port Moody City Hall and the library) are mixed-use streets, not malls. Suter Brook has included Thrifty Foods. Brewers Row on Murray Street and Rocky Point Ice Cream are local favourites, not a ranking. Port Coquitlam's downtown is the smaller main street.

Schools: SD43

School District No. 43 (Coquitlam) serves all five communities. Catchment follows the permanent address, and boundaries change — use the district's School Locator once you have an address, not a sentence in a listing. Secondary schools on the district's own 2025–26 contact list, as examples only: Centennial, Dr. Charles Best, Gleneagle and Pinetree in Coquitlam; Heritage Woods and Port Moody Secondary in Port Moody; Riverside and Terry Fox in Port Coquitlam. Burnaby is SD41 and Vancouver is SD39: a city boundary is a district boundary.

COQUITLAM CENTRE

930,000 sq ft

Nearly 200 stores and about 4,000 stalls, on the mall's own figures.

SCHOOL DISTRICT

SD43

One district for Coquitlam, Port Coquitlam, Port Moody, Anmore and Belcarra. The locator follows the address.

Healthcare and the setup

Healthcare

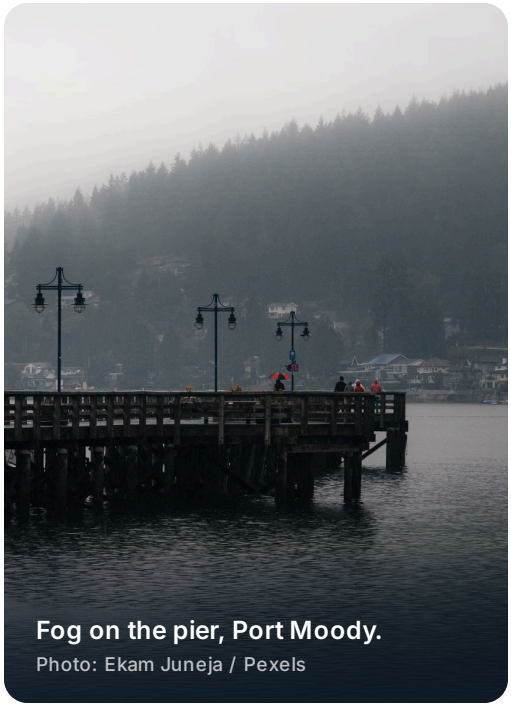

Apply for MSP when you arrive. The wait is the rest of that month plus two months, unless you are a returning Canadian, a permanent resident, arriving under CUEAT, or a discharged CAF family — those waits are waived. Keep other insurance for the gap. Register for a family doctor on the Health Connect Registry; the Province will not estimate the wait. Eagle Ridge Hospital, 475 Guildford Way, Port Moody, 604-461-2022, is the local emergency department. Royal Columbian in New Westminster is Fraser Health's Level 1 trauma centre. Know which is which.

Licence, power, gas, internet

Exchange an out-of-province licence within 90 days at an ICBC office; bring the licence, ID and proof of driving history. BC Hydro is electricity: open the account up to 60 days ahead, and the first bill includes $13.50 + GST. FortisBC is natural gas in Coquitlam, Port Coquitlam, Port Moody and Anmore — confirm the address has it. Internet: TELUS PureFibre, Rogers on the former Shaw network, and Novus in some buildings only.

Weather

Vancouver Harbour averages 1,537 mm of precipitation a year and 245 mm in November. Burke Mountain, Heritage Mountain and the villages are higher and see more snow than Clarke Street. I am not quoting a Port Moody climate table I do not have.

RAIN · VANCOUVER HARBOUR

A year, 1991–2020 normals. November is the wettest month at 245 mm.

JANUARY · JULY

5.3° / 19.0°

Average temperatures, 1991–2020, Vancouver Harbour. The hill runs cooler. A waterproof shell beats an umbrella on a SkyTrain platform.

Renting rules

½ month
SECURITY DEPOSIT

At most half a month's rent. Pet damage deposit, if any, at most another half month. Not first-and-last.

APPLICATION FEE

Application fees are illegal under section 15 of the Residential Tenancy Act, including a "credit-check fee."

2.3%
2026 INCREASE CAP

2.2% in 2027. Once every 12 months, with three full months' notice on the proper form.

7 / 15
DAYS · RTB-27

Condition inspection at move-in and move-out. You get a copy within 7 days of move-in and 15 of move-out. That is the deposit fight, if there is one.

$100
DISPUTE FILING

Residential Tenancy Branch filing fee. Phone 1-800-665-8779.

4–6
WEEKS OUT

Listings usually appear a few weeks before they are free. Plan the active search for about 4–6 weeks before you need keys.

BEFORE YOU SEND MONEY

See the suite yourself, or on a live video from inside it.

A price far under Coquitlam's $2,497 asking average (page 6), plus pressure to pay today by wire, gift card or crypto, is the pattern. Confirm the person can rent it. Half a month is the legal deposit ceiling, and nobody may charge you to apply.

Property transfer tax

Charged on fair market value at registration. The rate steps up through the price; each band is taxed at its own rate.

from $200,000 to $2,000,000

3%

further, on the residential portion above $3,000,000

WORKED EXAMPLES, NOT QUOTES

PORT COQUITLAM APARTMENT BENCHMARK

$9,000

Ordinary tax on $550,000: $2,000 + 2% of $350,000.

SAME HOME, FIRST-TIME BUYER

$1,000

After the $8,000 exemption that applies between $500,000 and $835,000 — if every other test is met.

NEWLY BUILT · COQUITLAM TOWNHOUSE

$17,532

Ordinary tax on $976,600. A qualifying newly built principal residence can be fully exempt up to $1,100,000, so that is what the exemption is worth.

First-time buyers' exemption

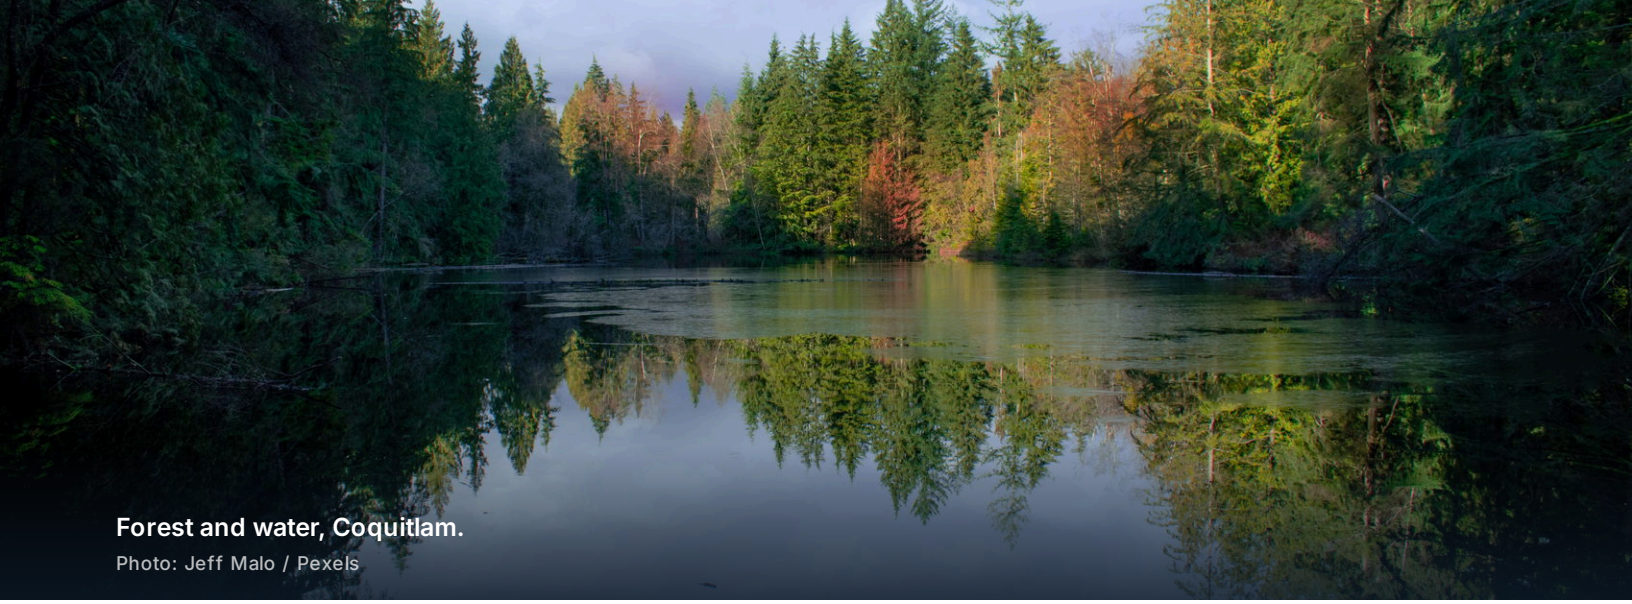

Full exemption at $500,000 or under; it phases out to zero at $860,000. Port Moody's apartment benchmark ($676,200) is in the band; its detached benchmark ($1,903,500) is not. You generally must be a citizen or permanent resident, meet the residence test, never have owned a principal residence anywhere, and live in the home.

Two more lines

Foreign buyers can owe an additional 20% on their share of residential property in Metro Vancouver; exemptions exist. GST on many new homes is a separate question I am not calculating here. For the first-time exemption the lot is generally 0.5 hectares or smaller for the full amount — relevant in Anmore. Not tax advice.

AXFORD REAL ESTATE

Tell me the station and the move date.

I help people moving here as a buyer's agent, and with a tenant-side rental search. The rental service is $1,500 + GST, paid by the tenant: $750 at the start (non-refundable) and $750 when a rental is secured. GST is 5%, so the tax on $1,500 is $75. I search Greater Vancouver with a focus on these cities, go to the showings or walk them with you on live video, and we read the lease before you sign.
