Greater Vancouver relocation — $100 Meta test

Devin Desaulniers, REALTOR® · Axford Real Estate, Port Moody

Tenant Relocation Service
$1,500 + GST, paid by the tenant
$750 + GST to start · $750 + GST when a rental is secured

Help people moving to Greater Vancouver find the right rental, neighbourhood, and move-in plan before they arrive. Home base is the Tri-Cities. The search covers the region. A renter who stays in touch may buy later; that purchase is pipeline, not this month's ad return.

SPEND

Nov 1–14: $100 total, Meta only. Four ads, $25 each, one audience (Canada, excluding B.C.). Facebook and Instagram. Housing special ad category. No age, gender, or postal-code targeting.

Nov 15 on: the winner only, at $100 a month, up to $200 after it has a qualified inquiry. Stay there until it proves out. Google Search is written and stays off.

2:1 BEFORE ANY SCALE-UP

Collected fees ÷ ad spend ≥ 2.0 before the month goes above $200. At 5% GST a full fee is $1,575, so one client carries $787 of spend. A retainer is $787.50 and is entered only when the cash is in.

If spend hits $787 and fees are still $0, pause. The $100 flight may finish with zero fees. That stop is for the prove-out phase.

WHERE THE CLICK GOES

WHO	PAGE	WHAT COUNTS AS A LEAD
Renters (this test)	devindesaulniers.ca/relocating-to-greater-vancouver.html#rentals	Tenants form email, call, or text. The page states the fee. The form is one click further, on tenants.html.
Buyers (parked)	devindesaulniers.ca/buyers.html#listings	"Send me listings." $0 in the return until a buyer fee is actually paid.
Google, later	Same relocating page, or rentals.html for "Coquitlam rentals"	A listing inquiry is not a $1,500 sale. Keep it in its own column.

NOVEMBER 15 — PICK THE WINNER

- Winner = lowest cost per qualified inquiry (spend on that ad ÷ inquiries that person tied to that picture). A qualified inquiry is a real relocation, a workable budget and date, and a willingness to hear the fee.
- Ask: "Was it the video, or a photo — the skyline, the SkyTrain, or the trees and lake?" If they are not sure, do not guess an ad.
- Zero qualified inquiries on all four: no winner, no jump to $200. Keep the cheapest click at $100 / month through November 30, then pause unless the calls gave a written reason to continue.
- Prove-out, later: a retainer in the bank, return at least 2.0, and the inquiries still match that definition. Then a higher budget can be discussed. This test does not raise it.
