How to use this guide

I'm Devin Desaulniers, a Real Estate Associate with Axford Real Estate on Clarke Street in Port Moody. I've lived in Greater Vancouver for 28 years, and I play soccer on a Port Coquitlam team. This guide is the version I wish people had before they wired a deposit from another province.

Greater Vancouver is a set of cities, not one city with neighbourhoods. The number that matters is your commute plus the rent or price on a specific home.

Two rent statistics get mixed up. Asking rents are vacant listings (Rentals.ca, September 2026, published 7 October 2026). CMHC averages include homes people already occupy (October 2025 survey). If you are arriving now, budget the asking rent.

The Tri-Cities edition — Coquitlam, Port Coquitlam, Port Moody, Anmore and Belcarra — is the companion to this one.

Figures change. Benchmarks are Greater Vancouver REALTORS® for September 2026, published 2 October 2026. Surrey is the Fraser Valley board, 5 October 2026. Tax and tenancy rules were checked 11 October 2026. This is general information, not legal, tax or mortgage advice.

SEPTEMBER 2026, IN FOUR NUMBERS

The region at a glance

$1,075,900
Composite benchmark, Greater Vancouver. Down 5.5% in a year (GVR MLS® HPI).

$2,380
Asking rent, Vancouver 1-bedroom. Down 4.8% year over year (Rentals.ca).

1,717
Homes sold in September. 8.4% fewer than a year earlier; 25% under the 10-year average.

$2.85
Adult 1-zone fare on Compass stored value. 1-zone everywhere after 6:30 p.m. and on weekends.

BENCHMARK BY HOME TYPE, GREATER VANCOUVER, SEPTEMBER 2026

Detached		$1,784,700 −7.3% y/y
Townhouse		$1,016,700 −4.7% y/y
Apartment		$682,500 −6.2% y/y

Asking rent vs. CMHC average

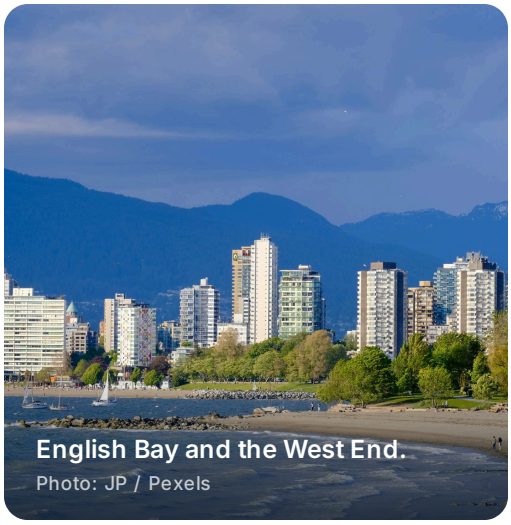

Asking rents are what vacant listings want this month. CMHC averages include tenants who signed years ago. The gap is the reason newcomers under-budget.

A benchmark is a typical home

Not a price tag on any listing. Each city also has its own hall, garbage calendar and school district; SkyTrain ties them together.

VANCOUVER

The city proper

Downtown and the West End are towers and seawall. Kitsilano is further west, by the beach. Mount Pleasant, Fairview and Olympic Village sit in the middle. East Vancouver is lower-rise. GVR splits the city in two for its benchmark. Expo, Millennium and Canada lines.

BURNABY

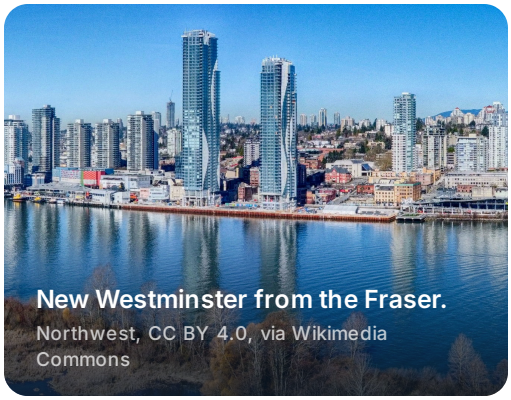

Three town centres

Metrotown (Expo), Brentwood (Millennium) and Lougheed (both lines) are the tower clusters. GVR reports Burnaby as East, North and South. Lougheed is the last stop before the Tri-Cities.

NORTH SHORE

Bridges or the SeaBus

The City and the District of North Vancouver are different municipalities. September asking rents for North Vancouver apartments and condos averaged $2,983, described as essentially unchanged year over year. SeaBus runs Lonsdale Quay to Waterfront, a 1- or 2-zone fare. Lions Gate or Ironworkers if you drive.

HOW TO READ THE BENCHMARKS

A typical home, not a price tag.

The MLS® Home Price Index tracks a “typical” home in each category and area, so it moves more smoothly than averages. Every composite in these snapshots is for September 2026. The full board, with detached, townhouse and apartment figures, is on page 9.

NOT PUBLISHED
Port Moody, Port Coquitlam, New Westminster, Surrey and Langley did not get their own line in the September report.

These are vacant listings — the number to budget from if you are arriving now. Apartments and condominiums unless noted. All property types in B.C. were −2.9% year over year.

Average rents, sitting tenants included

Why this is lower

Purpose-built rentals of three or more units, occupied and vacant. A tenant who signed in 2019 is in this average. A listing this month is not.

Reliability codes

FARES AND TRAVEL TIMES · OCTOBER 2026

Zones, Compass, minutes

1 ZONE · ADULT	2 ZONES · ADULT	3 ZONES · ADULT
$2.85	$4.20	$5.40
Cash, ticket or tap $3.50	Cash, ticket or tap $5.10	Cash, ticket or tap $6.70
Monthly pass $117.20	Monthly pass $156.70	Monthly pass $211.65

Big figures are Compass stored value, the cheaper adult fare. Still three zones in October 2026, and not a distance fare. Every bus is 1-zone, all day. SkyTrain is 1, 2 or 3 zones on a weekday daytime, and 1-zone after 6:30 p.m. and all weekend and holidays. SeaBus is 1 or 2 zones. Adult DayPass $12.55, not valid on the West Coast Express. Children 12 and under ride free. A fare lasts 90 minutes, or 120 if the West Coast Express is included.

Compass, briefly

The card is a $6 refundable deposit. Buy it at compasscard.ca, 604-398-2042, station vending machines, Waterfront's customer service centre, or some London Drugs. Concession cards are not in the machines. Load stored value in amounts of at least $5.

West Coast Express

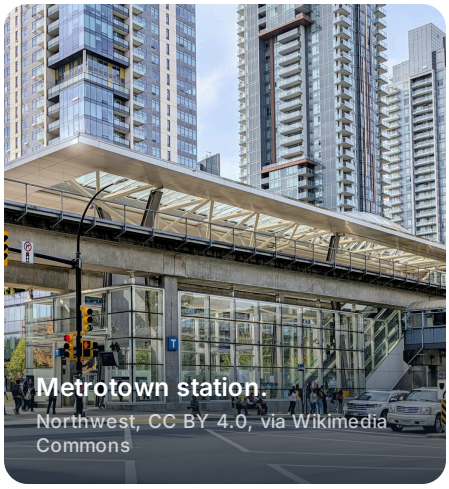

Its own zones, up to five. Moody Centre, Coquitlam Central and Port Coquitlam are 3 West Coast Express zones from Waterfront. A SkyTrain pass is not a West Coast Express pass; a West Coast Express return or monthly does include bus, SkyTrain and SeaBus that day. Parking was listed at $3 a day or $60 a month.

TO DOWNTOWN, IN PUBLISHED IN-VEHICLE MINUTES

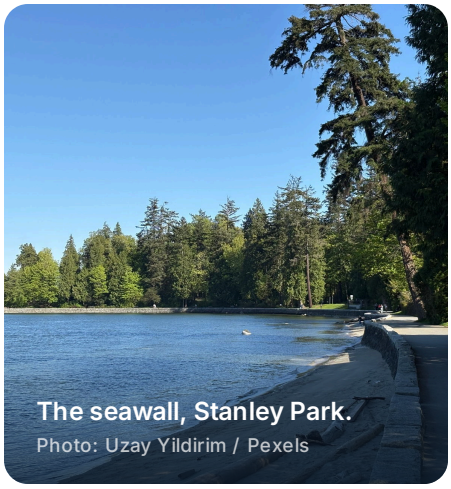

Coquitlam Central Millennium Line	32 min	Commercial–Broadway change to Expo Line	10 min	≈ 42	MINUTES + THE WAIT
Lafarge Lake–Douglas end of the line	35 min	Commercial–Broadway change to Expo Line	10 min	≈ 45	MINUTES + THE WAIT

Millennium trains end at VCC–Clark, so Waterfront is a transfer, usually at Commercial–Broadway onto the Expo Line. Peak Expo frequency is published as 2–5 minutes and Millennium as 3–4. West Coast Express, Mission City to Waterfront, is 75 minutes on the weekday timetable (departures 5:25–7:25 a.m., arrivals 6:40–8:40 a.m.). Mornings westbound only, afternoons eastbound only, five trains each way. I am not printing driving minutes: the bridges and Highway 1 change by the hour.

Shopping

Downtown has street retail and Pacific Centre. Metrotown and Richmond Centre sit on SkyTrain. In the Tri-Cities, Coquitlam Centre is the enclosed mall — about 930,000 square feet, nearly 200 stores, at Lincoln station — with anchors including Walmart, Best Buy, London Drugs, T&T and UNIQLO.

Suter Brook Village and Newport Village in Port Moody are outdoor village streets, not malls. Suter Brook's tenants have included Thrifty Foods. Rocky Point Ice Cream, inside Rocky Point Park, was still open when this was checked in October 2026.

Parks

Stanley Park's seawall and Kitsilano Beach are the city walks. Buntzen Lake, in Anmore, is a BC Hydro site: parking is free, but recent summers (roughly mid-May to early September) have required a free next-day parking reservation or you are turned away. Walkers, cyclists and the 182 bus do not need one. The 182 stops at Anmore Grocery, about a 30-minute walk to South Beach.

Belcarra Regional Park (təmtəmíxʷtən) has Sasamat Lake and the Admiralty Point Trail, about 6 km. Mundy Park is Coquitlam's 178-hectare urban forest with a 5.5 km loop. Town Centre Park is 42 hectares on Lafarge Lake. Burke Mountain's city loops are short; Pinecone Burke's backcountry has poor infrastructure, according to BC Parks.

Schools, healthcare, and the setup

Schools

The district follows the address. SD39 Vancouver, SD41 Burnaby, SD40 New Westminster, SD38 Richmond, SD44 North Vancouver, SD36 Surrey, SD43 Coquitlam (Coquitlam, Port Coquitlam, Port Moody, Anmore, Belcarra). Confirm catchment on the district locator. SD43 secondary names on its own 2025–26 list, not a ranking: Centennial, Dr. Charles Best, Gleneagle, Heritage Woods, Pinetree, Port Moody Secondary, Riverside, Terry Fox.

Healthcare

Apply for MSP when you arrive. The wait is the rest of that month plus two months, unless you are a returning Canadian, a permanent resident, arriving under CUEAT, or a discharged CAF family — those waits are waived. Keep other insurance for the gap. Register for a family doctor on the Health Connect Registry; the Province will not estimate the wait. Eagle Ridge Hospital in Port Moody (475 Guildford Way, 604-461-2022) is the Tri-Cities community hospital. Royal Columbian in New Westminster is Fraser Health's Level 1 trauma centre.

Licence, power, internet

Exchange an out-of-province licence within 90 days at an ICBC office. Bring the licence, ID, and proof of driving history. BC Hydro is electricity; open the account up to 60 days ahead. The first bill includes $13.50 + GST, and some accounts need a deposit. FortisBC is natural gas across the Tri-Cities. Internet: TELUS, Rogers (the former Shaw network), and Novus in some buildings only.

At most half a month's rent. Pet damage deposit, if any, at most another half month. Not first-and-last.

Application fees are illegal under section 15 of the Residential Tenancy Act, including a "credit-check fee."

2.3%
2026 INCREASE CAP

2.2% in 2027. Once every 12 months, with three full months' notice on the proper form.

7 / 15
DAYS · RTB-27

Condition inspection at move-in and move-out. You get a copy within 7 days of move-in and 15 of move-out.

$100
DISPUTE FILING

Residential Tenancy Branch filing fee. Phone 1-800-665-8779.

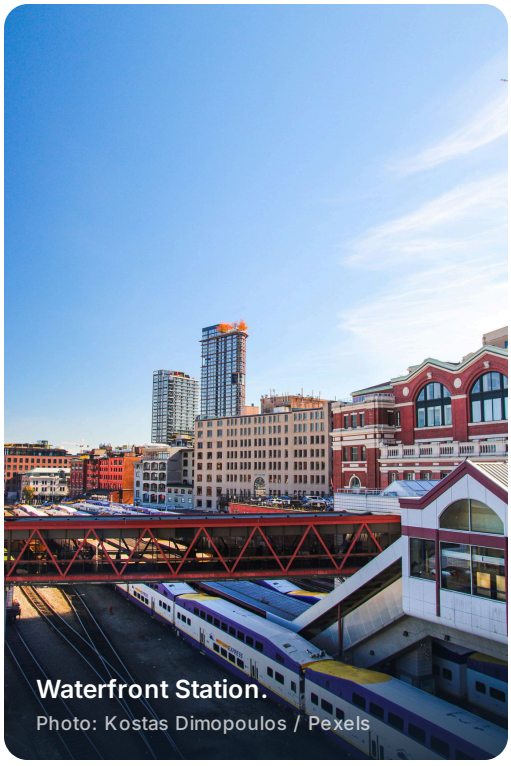

4–6
WEEKS OUT

Most listings appear only a few weeks before move-in. A serious search usually starts 4–6 weeks out.

BEFORE YOU SEND MONEY

See the home, in person or on a live video from inside it.

Confirm the person can rent it. Be wary of a price far under the asking rents on page 7, of pressure to pay today, and of wire, gift cards or crypto. Half a month is the legal deposit ceiling, and nobody may charge you to apply.

WORKED EXAMPLES, NOT QUOTES

COQUITLAM APARTMENT BENCHMARK

$10,802

Ordinary tax on $640,100: $2,000 + 2% of $440,100.

SAME HOME, FIRST-TIME BUYER

$2,802

After the $8,000 exemption that applies between $500,000 and $835,000 on registrations on or after 1 April 2024 — if every other test is met.

NEWLY BUILT · COQUITLAM TOWNHOUSE

$17,532

Ordinary tax on $976,600. A qualifying newly built principal residence can be fully exempt up to $1,100,000, so that is what the exemption is worth.

First-time buyers' exemption

Full exemption at $500,000 or under. It phases out to zero at $860,000. You generally must be a citizen or permanent resident, meet the residence test, never have owned a principal residence anywhere, and live in the home. The lot is generally 0.5 hectares or smaller for the full amount.

Two more lines

Foreign buyers can owe an additional 20% on their share of residential property in Metro Vancouver; exemptions exist. GST on a new home is a separate question I am not calculating here. None of this is tax advice.

A SEQUENCE

The first 30 days

BEFORE YOU ARRIVE

- [ ] Shortlist from the commute.
- [ ] Budget asking rents, not CMHC.
- [ ] ID and proof of income. No application fee.
- [ ] BC Hydro up to 60 days ahead. Ask about gas.
- [ ] Order internet for that address.

WEEK ONE

- [ ] Apply for MSP. Cover the wait.
- [ ] Sign the condition report.
- [ ] Buy a Compass Card and ride the real commute once.
- [ ] Join the Health Connect Registry.
- [ ] Book the ICBC exchange.

BY DAY 30

- [ ] Confirm the school catchment for the signed address.
- [ ] Update bank, CRA, ICBC.
- [ ] Learn that city's garbage day.
- [ ] Walk the block in the rain.
- [ ] Renting first is a normal way to learn the region.

90 days

Driver's licence. Exchange an out-of-province licence at ICBC within 90 days.

60 days

BC Hydro. Open the account up to 60 days ahead; the first bill adds $13.50 + GST.

2 months +

MSP wait for most newcomers: the rest of the arrival month plus two months. Insure the gap.

UNLISTED

Things locals know

"The city" is ambiguous.
It can mean Vancouver or the whole region.

PoCo is not Coquitlam.
Different city, no SkyTrain.

Evergreen is not a transfer.
It is the Millennium Line.

West Coast Express is one-way at rush hour.
Not a midday SkyTrain.

After 6:30 p.m., long SkyTrain trips are 1-zone.
Buy the pass for the daytime trip.

Half a month, not first and last.
And no application fee.

The neighbour's rent is not your rent.
CMHC includes sitting tenants. Listings do not.

November is the wet month.
245 mm at Vancouver Harbour, on average.

Buntzen in summer needs a parking pass.
Free, and still mandatory in recent seasons.

A listing does not assign a school.
The district's locator does.

MSP does not start on landing day for most newcomers.

Anmore and Belcarra are villages.
The nearest rapid transit is in Port Moody.

AXFORD REAL ESTATE

Bring me the commute and the date.

I help people moving here as a buyer's agent, and with a tenant-side rental search. The rental service is $1,500 + GST, paid by the tenant: $750 at the start (non-refundable) and $750 when you secure a place. GST is 5%, so the tax on $1,500 is $75. I search, I go to the showings or walk them with you on live video, and we read the lease before you sign.
